OSCAR NOMINEE AND BAFTA WINNER COLIN FIRTH AND OTHER FILM STARS FETED AT THE NEW LUXURIOUS CORINTHIA HOTEL LONDON IN PARTNERSHIP WITH MOMENTUM

14th February 2011 - On the eve of the British Academy of Film and Television Arts (BAFTA) awards night, Corinthia Hotel London celebrated the success of Momentum Pictures' BAFTA nominated films by hosting an exclusive lunch in what is to be London's newest 5-star luxury hotel, kicking off the most important weekend for the UK film industry. Eventual 'Leading Actor' winner and Oscar nominee Colin Firth, together with Amy Adams, Noomi Rapace, Felicity Jones and top Hollywood executives toasted the success of The King's Speech, The Girl with the Dragon Tattoo, Another Year and The Fighter with themed cocktails and a delicious lunch.

Positioned within the stunning Victorian ballroom, a specially designed temporary space offered guests a sneak peak of what is to come when the hotel opens its doors in April. Striking illustrations and visual projections of the hotel played the perfect backdrop for the informal BAFTA nominee lunch. Corinthia London commissioned award winning design duo, Studio Glithero, to produce the extraordinary sixteen-foot long Poured Bar, where bespoke themed cocktails were shaken and served.

Corinthia Hotel London will boast 294 guest rooms with a state of the art HD optical turnkey system that effortlessly allows total connectivity of five guest rooms and five meeting rooms, specifically designed for ease of use for media and the TV industry. The bespoke system allows for recording, mixing and broadcasting from a dedicated media room at the hotel, without the need for additional hardware.
